A Royal Father's Day

It's Father's Day, and you're looking for a gift that's as unique as your dad. Why not a fishing lure? These colorful, handcrafted lures are perfect for the fishing enthusiast in your life. They come in a variety of designs, including beetles, fish, and other aquatic creatures. Each lure is meticulously crafted and painted to look like the real thing. They're not just fishing gear; they're works of art. Perfect for Father's Day, they'll be a hit with any dad who loves to fish.

Pappasito's Grilled Seafood

With its focus on fresh, locally sourced ingredients, Pappasito's Grilled Seafood is a restaurant that's truly a gem. The menu is a mix of traditional Mexican dishes with a modern twist. The seafood is perfectly grilled and served with a variety of salsas. The atmosphere is warm and inviting, making it a great spot for a family meal or a date. The service is attentive and friendly, ensuring every guest has a great experience. Pappasito's Grilled Seafood is a must-visit for anyone who loves good food and a great atmosphere.

Not Your Typical Tex-Mex

With more than 40 tequilas and two splendid fire pits, Añejo House of Tequila is sure to erase the idea of typical suburban Tex-Mex from your brain. This spot in North Richland Hills has been handsomely outfitted with copious use of natural stone and glass, and an eye-catching installation of lights at the bar made from dozens of LED candles. Broad patio doors lead out to a large patio with lush landscaping and a dramatic outdoor fire pit; inside, a matching fire pit is topped by a magnificent copper-shingled hood. Manager Brian Paul calls it "our Mona Lisa." The food is traditional Mexican but with a New Age twist, as executed by chef Fernando Martinez, who was taught at Cordon Bleu and who worked for Pappasito's for 14 years. 9159 Grapevine Highway, Suite 300, North Richland Hills. 817-485-9900.
